

Join the ISMRM and gain a world of MR knowledge!

THE VALUE OF AN ISMRM MEMBERSHIP

As a member of the International Society for Magnetic Resonance in Medicine (ISMRM), you are part of a global, multidisciplinary community of clinicians, physicists, engineers, biochemists, radiographers and technologists.

Our purpose is to promote communication, research, development, and applications in the field of MR in medicine and biology and other related topics. We strive to develop and provide channels and facilities for continuing education in the field.
